Cantor Friedler and friends entertain Weinberg Village Residents for Chanukah

Tampa, Florida (Thursday, December 17, 2009): Residents at Weinberg Village Assisted Living Facility were treated to songs and dancing led by accordion-playing cantor, Moshe Friedler, from Congregation Rodeph Sholom, Wednesday evening, Dec. 16th. Accompanied by Steve Dervech on drums and Sy Kletzl on Clarinet, Cantor Friedler led the assembled group in songs in English, Yiddish, Spanish and Hebrew. Laurin Jacobson, a Rodeph congregant and Hillel teacher, roused the group to enthusiastically sing-a-long, while a few hearty souls even danced the Hora in the aisles and shook the blue and white mariachis provided by the group. Betsy Marcadis organized the event, bringing along fellow participants Inez Levin, Lisa Titen and her daughter, Rachel. Chanukah desserts were served, along with homemade cookies from Ms Sivan's 7th grade class from Rodeph Sholom. Approximately fifty residents attended the event, which promptly followed dinner.
