“The Seasons of Life”!

Tampa, Florida: A dedication and dessert reception was held at Weinberg Village Monday, September 21 to honor the completion of the mural “The Seasons of Life,” created by Weinberg Village residents, under the supervision of artist Angela Dickerson.

Research has shown that we can all continue to grow and flourish in the second half of our lives. “This need to remain vital,” says Gene Cohen, author of The Mature Mind, “can lead to new manifestations of creativity and social engagement that make this period full of surprises.”

Weinberg Village sees the worth of this concept.

Angela Dickerson, an artist working in all mediums from print making to metal-working, met with 10-12 residents weekly for a period of 10 weeks - producing a series of trees representing the seasons. Angela’s funding came from VSA of Florida, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing arts, education and cultural opportunities for people with disabilities.

Angela has done numerous projects at Weinberg Village over the last two years, including helping residents paint a brightly colored mural in the Memory Support Unit, helping residents decorate canvas bags, and working with them to design New Year postcards for Rosh Hashanah.
