The Yiddish Film Series!

Tampa, Florida: The Yiddish Film Series, sponsored by Congregation Kol Ami, Weinberg Village and the Tampa Bay Jewish Film Festival, shows its first movie, The Dybbuk, Sunday, October 18 at the JCC. It is the story of a young couple meeting and falling in love, years after their parents had made a pledge that they marry. The next film, Yiddle with the Fiddle, will be shown Sunday, November 15. This film is the most commercially successful musical in the history of the Yiddish cinema and stars Molly Picon. The plot centers around a penniless man and his daughter who decide to become traveling musicians. The final film in the series, Mamele, will be shown Sunday, December 6. Also starring Molly Picon, Mamele comically embraces the entire gamut of interwar Jewish life in Lodz as Molly goes from childhood to old age.

All films will be show in the JCC auditorium. Light refreshments will be served. Doors open at 9:30am and the program concludes around noon. For further information, please contact administrative coordinator of the Tampa Bay Jewish Film Series, Iris

Ruth Pastor at Iris.Pastor@jewishtampa.com. For planning purposes RSVPs are appreciated but not required.
