FINANCIAL PLANNING WORKSHOP

Do you know where all your important documents are? Would your spouse or loved ones know where to find your important documents if they need them? Are all of your parents' documents organized and accessible? Are you going to outlive your money or is your money going to outlive you? This workshop will help you organize, understand, document and track your personal and financial records all in one place.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER: Christie B. Cooper, President of Cooper Financial Services has over thirty years experience as a financial advisor, speaker, and workshop facilitator. Christie has been providing financial planning practice since 1994, Chris has received numerous local and national recognition awards, most recently she was named Tampa Bay Woman of the Year in Financial Services.
